

Health and Safety Policy

“Chemical Engineering Department”

Department is committed to the Health and Safety of our students, faculty, staff members and other stakeholders. The department strives to find innovative ways to protect the stakeholders with improved health and safety measure and performance. The department believes that's everyone's safety is paramount.

Head of Department
Chemical Engineering Department